

D4 cancelled

ERV – European Travel Insurance*

Reliable travel protection in every situation

Keeping you and your employees safe while on business or personal travel is our top priority. In the case of sickness, accident or natural disaster – ERV offers the perfect insurance protection to prepare you for any emergency. We will provide you with tailored insurance solutions so that you and your employees can be safe on all journeys.

Insurance protection for business travellers

Many major travel providers and more than 10,000 travel agencies rely on the know-how and experience of ERV. With representation in 26 countries and an international network, you will be optimally supported before, during and after your travels.

Trust in performance

■ Worry-free annual protection

The complete package applies for all business and holiday travel within a year (travel duration up to 45 days) and day trips as well. Travel cancellation, curtailment, health and luggage insurance are also included.

■ Annual travel health insurance

We provide extensive medical emergency help, which covers the costs for medically required treatments abroad as well as for return transport if medically advisable.

■ Annual travel legal costs insurance

ERV services

- More than 100 years of travel insurance experience
- Tailored insurance solutions
- 24-hour hotline
- Arrangement of German or English language doctors on site
- Placement in local quality-inspected hospitals
- Medical consulting service
- Return transport if medically advisable

Europäische Reiseversicherung AG (ERV) – the experts in travel protection! So that you and your employees can be safe and prepared for the worst-case scenario.

