

Group and incentive travel

Book online with just a few clicks

Meet, celebrate, motivate – at the greatest locations in the world. Whether it's a dog sled ride in Lapland, sailing in the Mediterranean or sleeping under the starry skies of the desert, we can plan and organise your group and incentive travel individually and according to your wishes. From the kick-off meeting to an anniversary event – whatever you are planning, wherever it is taking place and whatever it may cost, we offer you the right place and atmosphere for your event.

Together we are strong

Motivated employees perform better

Extraordinary experiences strengthen the sense of community and create new motivation. Away from everyday life and before an unusual beautiful backdrop, fresh ideas, unusual perspectives and new ways of working together will emerge. Incentive travel both rewards and motivates – it increases employee loyalty, promotes teamwork and yields further success.

Satisfied customers will return

An extraordinary customer event in a special place is a unique and distinctive way of thanking your customers who are dear and precious to you. Shared experiences create wonderful memories and a long-lasting connection and cement the business relationship.

A one-stop shop for your event

- Conceptualisation and research: briefing, creative idea generation, proposal preparation, presentation of all services
- Realisation and implementation: flight and hotel booking, location research, conference organisation, framework programmes, coordination and support on site
- Financial control: savings generated through company and corporate discounts, detailed cost statements, budget monitoring, transparent invoicing

Online booking with many advantages

- Option to select a specific hotel chain
- Specification of the event details (number of participants, number of event locations etc.)
- Only three steps to the right conference hotel
- Our strong partner: TUI group and incentive travel

Gruppen- &
Incentive-Reisen

Book online now: www.first-business-travel.de/tagungen